

EL LLORENÇ

PARC DE LA MAR

This adult-only boutique hotel close to Palma's cathedral is situated on a quiet promenade. It offers exquisite gastronomic cuisine by acclaimed local chef Santi Taura. Inspired by the city's Moorish heritage, renowned Swedish designer Magnus Ehrland has created a welcoming home, with warm natural colours and the use of verdant foliage throughout the building; in fact, a special Arabic star pattern is incorporated in many elements throughout the hotel. The spa – a modern version of Arabic baths – is probably the most complete in Palma. With 1920s-style retro images, classic walnut mouldings and quirky and futuristic lighting, guests find themselves amid mischievous Great Gatsby opulence, while the roof terrace, set on three levels, affords panoramic views over the Mediterranean Sea.

DINS SANTI TAURA

A PLACE FOR GOURMET LOVERS

Situated in the historical part of Palma, just a few metres from the cathedral, Dins Santi Taura, winner of two 'Soles Repsol' and awarded a Michelin star in 2021, interprets Mallorcan cuisine from a contemporary point of view without forgetting its roots and the island's history.

This dining experience brings the Balearic diversity of gastronomy, products and recipes closer to the guests. Internationally acclaimed gourmet chef Santi Taura personally serves the tasting menu in the restaurant. All dishes are made with seasonal ingredients of local origin according to the "Km 0" rule. This means that all dishes in the "Dins" pay special attention to local products and seasonal availability. DINS is a very personal restaurant reflecting the love of the Balearic Islands.
